WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15, 1911,

in the order named the properties above referred to,

(1) At 12:30 o'clock P. M., the very valuable and eligibly located threestory Brick Store and Dwelling, No. 124 East Broad Street, located at the rorthwest corner of Broad and Second Streets, now occupied by C. A. Muir as a shoe store, and fronting about 29 feet.

(2) At 1:30 o'clock P. M., that extremely valuable Store Property, known as Nos. 532 and 534 East Broad Street, situated at the northwest corner of Broad and Sixth Streets, fronting about 29 feet 5 inches, together with the Street, between Broad Street and the alley running between Broad and Marshall Streets, and occupied, respectively, by J. Weinstein and Steigler & Company. The corner portion of this property is occupied by the Kenney Tea Company as to the larger portion, and the rest of it by Mrs. Teresa Glanotti.
Both of these Broad Street properties are among the best in that attractive retail section of the city, and it can be truthfully said that no property land at Broad and Sixth Streets.

At 4:30 o'clock P. M., we will sell that very desirable vacant lot on the cast side of Eighteenth Street, near the mouth of Clay Street. This lot fronts 34 feet 5 inches, and by reason of its proximity to the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad and to the large warehouse properties of the American Terminal Warehouse Company, should command the attention of investors and others.
